

General Data Protection Regulation of the European Union (Regulation (EU) 2016/679)

In compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation of the European Union (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), which came into force on 25th May 2018, maximice events group SL has adopted a series of technical and organisational measures to ensure that personal data is processed in a fair, lawful and transparent manner.

maximice events group SL guarantees that all personal data that we control or process is subject to the privacy and security measures established by current regulations. It therefore produces a thorough report on the measures adopted.

Appointment of the Data Protection Officer.	maximice events group SL does not have a Data Protection Officer because it does not fall within the category in which it is mandatory according to Article 37 of the GDPR.
Activity registration.	maximice events group SL keeps a record of all the processing activities carried out under its responsibility.
Impact assessment.	maximice events group SL has procedures to carry out an impact assessment of processing operations that could entail a high risk for the rights and freedoms of individuals.
Implementing and communicating the data protection policy.	maximice events group SL has implemented a data protection policy in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation of the European Union (Regulation (EU) 2016/679). It has been communicated to all company personnel and to all the agents involved.
Employee training.	Employees of maximice events group SL have received the relevant training for the proper processing of personal data and knowledge of their rights.
Definition of roles and responsibilities.	The personal data protection policy implemented by maximice events group SL defines the roles and responsibilities of the persons or entities authorised to process personal data.
Guaranteeing the exercise of GDPR rights.	maximice events group SL guarantees the exercise of the rights of the interested parties of: access, rectification, deletion and opposition, treatment limitation, data portability, which is not subject to automated individualised decisions.
Definition of the data conservation policy.	maximice events group SL has defined a data conservation policy, by which it is guaranteed that the data will be kept only for the time necessary for the purpose for which it was collected, after which it will be destroyed. It will delete or return all personal data once the processing service is finished.

Implicated third parties.	maximice events group SL has updated all the contracts it keeps for compliance with GDPR.
Confidentiality obligation.	Persons authorised to process personal data are subject to the confidentiality obligation through a written document.
International transfers of personal data.	maximice events group SL guarantees that GDPR will be complied with in the event that personal data is transferred.
Definition of technical and organisational measures.	maximice events group SL has defined a series of appropriate technical and organisational measures to guarantee a level of security appropriate for data processing. In addition, it has a set of rules and procedures for information security.
Notification of data security breaches.	If applicable, maximice events group SL will notify a personal data security breach to the control authority and to the interested party in time and form according to the GDPR. It has a security breach notification procedure.

maximice events group SL

Calle Mariano Villangomez, 8

07015 Palma de Mallorca

CIF: ESB57886186

18/01/2019

The Company Management

Date